El Bautismo del Señor

Si pudiéramos recordar nuestro propio Bautismo, tal vez sentiríamos algo muy especial sobre la invitación de Dios a sentirnos predilectos hijos e hijas amados por Dios. Ahí, en la pila bautismal, ese día tan especial, recibimos el Espíritu Santo. Ojalá, hoy estemos dispuestos a escuchar en nuestro corazón las mismas palabras que Jesús escuchó en el Río Jordán: “Tú eres mi Hijo, hoy te he dado la vida” (Lucas 3:22). Pidamos al Señor que nos ayude a sorprendernos y llenarnos de asombro y alegría, con las cosas pequeñas que Dios pone en nuestro camino cotidiano; sabiendo que el Espíritu Santo nos guía y lleva a tener una relación personal con Dios.

De cada uno depende que la semilla sembrada el día de nuestro Bautismo germine y crezca, dando frutos en abundancia para el bien propio, de la familia y de la comunidad. La vida entera de Jesús fue ser reflejo del Padre y hacer su voluntad; siempre fue su prioridad. ¿Qué hago yo para reflejar que Dios existe en mí? ¿De qué modo hago su voluntad en mis acciones? “El Bautismo es el más bello y magnífico de los dones de Dios... lo llamamos don, gracia, unción, iluminación, vestidura de incorruptibilidad, baño de regeneración, sello y todo lo más precioso que hay” (Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, numeral 1243). Señor, abre mis ojos y mis oídos a tu Palabra para escuchar tu voz y poner en práctica tu amor.

The Baptism of the Lord

Luke 3:15-16, 21-22

In my second year of theology studies, I went to confession to a priest visiting the seminary for a three-day retreat. My heart wasn't in it. I was going through the motions. I confessed my sins and waited for his response. The priest said, “For your penance, I'd like you to go into the chapel and repeat the words ‘You are my beloved Son, with you I am well pleased’ (Luke 3:22) until they mean something to you.” Easy penance, I thought.

But to my surprise, I struggled to say those words. I sensed a strong interior resistance blocking them. How could God be well-pleased with me? He couldn't be, I thought. A battle within me ensued. Two hours later, the resistance vanished, and I found myself able to speak, and claim as my own, those marvelous words. I emerged from the chapel with a new, deep, peaceful conviction that I was indeed God's beloved son.

Those words are a precious gift from heaven to all of us. Jesus' baptism, which we celebrate this week, offers them to us. Are we willing to receive these words anew? Many things can block this deepening of our baptismal identity: failings, sins, disappointments, traumas, problems, and so on. Yet God's love is always greater. This week I challenge you to prayerfully repeat these words over yourself — or perhaps over someone you're struggling to love — until those words find a home in your heart.

— Father John Muir

Altar Servers

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to our altar servers for their unwavering commitment to serving at Mass. Your dedication is a beautiful example of faith in action and a blessing to our parish community.

As we continue to celebrate together, we recognize that some of our Masses remain uncovered. We invite others, especially our youth, to prayerfully consider joining this vital ministry. Serving at the altar is a meaningful way to grow closer to Christ and play a special role in the heart of the Eucharist. If you or someone in your family feels called to serve, we would love to hear from you. Training is provided, and no experience is needed—only a willing heart! Thank you for helping us keep our liturgies reverent and meaningful.

How can YOU help the Church?

Do you know someone who is a carpenter? We're looking for assistance in building (or buying) two individual kneelers to be used at our First Holy Communion Masses. If you can help, please reach out to us.

Do You Have a Child Preparing for Reconciliation and Eucharist? Here are some helpful reminders. (Part 1)

- Active Participation in the Journey - Attend all parent meetings, classes, and workshops. These provide essential guidance on how to support your child's spiritual growth.
- Foster a Prayerful Environment - Pray with your child daily. Simple prayers like the "Our Father," "Glory Be," "Hail Mary," & "Act of Contrition" help reinforce their connection to God.
- Be a Faith Role Model - Regularly attend Sunday Mass as a family. Show your child the importance of worship, listening to God's Word, and receiving the Eucharist.
