El grupo la Purisima concepcion

te invita en esta Cuaresma a ser parte del viacrucis todos los viernes de Cuaresma, empezando el día 7 de marzo al 18 de abril, a las 12:00 pm, nos reuniremos en las estaciones de la cruz que se encuentran fuera de nuestra iglesia, para meditar juntos sobre el sacrificio y amor infinito de Cristo por nosotros. Es un momento de encuentro y de profunda unión con nuestra fe.

Ash Wednesday

Question:

Is Ash Wednesday a holy day of obligation?

Answer:

Despite the often packed churches, you may be surprised to hear that the answer is no! Holy days of obligation commemorate a particular event (such as the birth of Christ at Christmas) or celebrate particular people (such as Mary's Immaculate Conception or the feast of All Saints). Ash Wednesday is a day of penance, fasting, and abstinence to begin the season of Lent. In a sense, it focuses on a concept rather than something particular and concrete.

Of course, repentance ought to be reflected in particular, concrete ways! That's one of the reasons that attending Mass on Ash Wednesday is a very good idea. It marks the beginning of a solemn season of penance. Despite all its comparisons to the desert, Lent can be very fruitful for our spiritual growth! Beginning this season with the celebration of Mass and the reception of ashes is a sign of our commitment to God, to spiritual growth through repentance, and to the Gospel.

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

Con la llegada de la temporada de la Cuaresma, la Iglesia comienza ahora su tiempo de preparación espiritual para los días solemnes de la Semana Santa y la más grande de todas las fiestas, la de la Pascua. Al apartar éstos cuarenta días, la Iglesia está siguiendo el ejemplo de nuestro divino Señor, quien pasó el mismo período de tiempo en el desierto, en oración, ayuno y autocontrol, luchando con la tentación, justo antes de comenzar su ministerio público. La Cuaresma, por lo tanto, es un tiempo sagrado y lleno de gracia para todos los que deseamos seguir a Cristo en Su Iglesia como Sus discípulos.

No debemos olvidar que la Cuaresma está destinada para tener un momento de crecimiento personal y para desarrollar nuestra propia vida espiritual. A través de actos de abnegación y renunciando a placeres innecesarios, nos estamos uniendo estrechamente con nuestro Señor en Su tentación y lucha. Jesús nos enseña que caminar los caminos de Dios en ésta vida, a menudo involucrará lucha y decisiones difíciles. Ésta temporada especial de Cuaresma, por lo tanto, es una invitación llena de gracia de parte de Dios para mirarnos a nosotros mismos y redescubrir lo que realmente importa en nuestras vidas. La Cuaresma está destinada a ser un tiempo de fecundidad espiritual.

El tiempo sagrado de la Cuaresma es una oportunidad preciosa para que cada uno de nosotros, personalmente, hagamos nuestra la redención de Cristo. Las prácticas tradicionalmente asociadas con la Cuaresma –de Oración, de Ayuno, y de Limosna- nos ayudarán en éste sentido.

Somos muy conscientes de nuestra debilidad y de nuestro fracaso para enfrentar la tentación, pero la Cuaresma debe tranquilizarnos. Los Padres de la Iglesia enseñaron que el Buen Samaritano de la parábola era, de hecho, Cristo mismo, que vino a sanar y a unir las heridas de una humanidad magullada y rota, derramando el aceite de Su amor y misericordia. Nos reunimos con el Buen Samaritano cada vez que asistimos a la misa y recibimos cualquiera de los sacramentos que nos dejó a Su Iglesia, especialmente la Santa Eucaristía. También nos instó a que hagamos una buena confesión durante la Cuaresma; allí como siempre, encontraremos al buen Cristo esperándonos con misericordia y perdón.

A medida que vivimos tiempos inciertos en el presente, seamos de buen corazón y llenos de confianza, manteniendo nuestra mirada firmemente fija en Cristo, el pionero y arquitecto de nuestra fe. Como su pastor, oro para que éste período de Cuaresma sea uno de gracia divina y bendición para todos nosotros, y que celebremos la Pascua con alegría y con la esperanza perdurable que viene de la resurrección del Señor.

Asegurándoles que están en mis oraciones, y con mi bendición,
Rev. Timothy Do

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

With the coming of the season of Lent, the Church now begins her time of spiritual preparation for the solemn days of Holy Week and the greatest of all feasts, that of Easter. In setting apart these forty days the Church is following the example of our divine Lord, who spent the same period of time in the wilderness, in prayer, fasting and self-restraint, through struggling with temptation, just before He began His public ministry. Lent, therefore, is a hallowed and grace-filled time for all of us who wish to follow Christ in His Church as His disciples.

We must not forget that Lent is intended to be a time of personal growth and for developing our own spiritual life. Through acts of self-denial and by forgoing unnecessary pleasures, we are uniting ourselves closely with our Lord in His temptation and struggle. Jesus teaches us that walking the ways of God in this life will often involve struggle and hard choices. This special season of Lent, therefore, is a grace-filled invitation from God to look carefully at ourselves, and to rediscover what really matters in our lives. Lent is meant to be a time of spiritual fruitfulness.

The sacred time of Lent is a precious opportunity for each one of us personally to make Christ's redemption our very own. Those practices traditionally associated with Lent – prayer, fasting, almsgiving – will help us in this regard.

We are only too aware of our weakness and our failure in dealing with temptation, but Lent should reassure us. The Fathers of the Church taught that the Good Samaritan of the parable was in fact Christ Himself, come to heal and bind up the wounds of a bruised and broken humanity, pouring in the oil of His love and mercy. We meet that Good Samaritan each time we attend Mass and receive any of the sacraments He has left to His Church, especially the Holy Eucharist. I also urge you to make a good Confession during Lent; there as always, you will find the gentle Christ awaiting you with mercy and forgiveness.

As we live through uncertain times at present, let us be of good heart and full of confidence, keeping our gaze firmly fixed on Christ, the pioneer and architect of our faith. As your pastor, I pray that this season of Lent may be one of divine grace and blessing for all of us, and that we will celebrate Easter with joy and in the enduring hope which comes from the Lord's resurrection.

Assuring you of my prayers, and with my blessing,

Rev. Timothy Truong Do

RECONCILIATION AND INDULGENCE

Jubilee year is a sign of reconciliation because it establishes a “favorable time” (cf. 2 Corinthians 6:2) for conversion. We are called to put God at the center of our lives, growing toward Him and acknowledging His primacy. Concretely, reconciliation is about experiencing the sacrament of Reconciliation, taking advantage of this time to rediscover the value of confession, and personally receiving God's word of forgiveness. There are some Jubilee churches that continuously offer the possibility for Reconciliation. Indulgence is a concrete manifestation of God's mercy, which surpasses and transforms the boundaries of human justice. This gift of grace came about by Jesus' saving mission. Seeing the witnesses of Jesus and the saints and living in communion with them our hope for our own forgiveness is strengthened. Concretely, the experience of God's mercy involves some spiritual actions, as Pope Francis has recommended to the faithful. Those who cannot make the Jubilee pilgrimage due to illness or other circumstances are nevertheless invited to take part in the spiritual journey that accompanies this Jubilee year. Among the conditions for receiving the indulgence is praying for the Pope's intentions.

RECONCILIACIÓN Y LA INDULGENCIA

El Jubileo es un signo de reconciliación, porque abre un «tiempo favorable» (cfr. 2 Cor 6,2) para la propia conversión. Uno pone a Dios en el centro de la propia existencia, dirigiéndose hacia Él y reconociéndole la primacía. Concretamente, se trata de vivir el sacramento de la reconciliación, de aprovechar este tiempo para redescubrir el valor de la confesión y recibir personalmente la palabra del perdón de Dios. Hay algunas iglesias jubilares que ofrecen continuamente esta posibilidad. La indulgencia es una manifestación concreta de la misericordia de Dios, que supera los límites de la justicia humana y los transforma. Este tesoro de gracia se hizo historia en Jesús y en los santos: viendo estos ejemplos, y viviendo en comunión con ellos, la esperanza del perdón y del propio camino de santidad se fortalece y se convierte en una certeza. Concretamente, esta experiencia de misericordia pasa a través de algunas acciones espirituales que son indicadas por el Papa. Aquellos que, por enfermedad u otra causa, no puedan realizar la peregrinación están invitados, de todos modos, a tomar parte del movimiento espiritual que acompaña a este Año, ofreciendo su sufrimiento y su vida cotidiana y participando en la celebración eucarística. Entre las condiciones para recibir la indulgencia está orar por las intenciones del Papa.
