These are a couple pictures of the tile in the church. We are having the tile professionally steam cleaned. If you look closely at the picture, the dark brown/black color is the “before” picture and the grey color is the “after” picture. The cost of this cleaning was $5,500. These are the type of expenses that come with a church that is getting older. These expenses will be paid from your DDF donations . Please continue to donate to our DDF campaign and thank you for your generosity.

Dear Faith Formation Families,

It is my prayer that you are all enjoying your family time this summer. As you know, I have been assigned by Bishop Rojas as the new Pastor of St. Catherine of Alexandria, Temecula. As your pastor, it is my responsibility to help families within this parish community to grow in faith and holiness. You have already seen some changes in the liturgy, weekly confessions, office hours, and Baptisms during Sunday Masses.

After listening to a number of people of the parish, and personally evaluating our Faith Formation Program, I have decided that the Priests and the Deacons of our parish will be more involved in the Faith Formation Program by teaching different classes, offering support to the catechists, and being available to you, the parents.

There is also another important aspect that I bring forward in this letter. I wish to inform you; of an important change I am making to our Parish's Faith Formation Program. Under my directive, our Faith Formation Program will now offer a unified program for all children, which will be facilitated in English. This change is driven by several factors:

- Decline in Student Enrollment: There has been a noticeable decline in the number of children registered in Spanish classes. More children of Spanish speaking parents are requesting to be registered in English classes. They understand English better.
- Language Barrier: Catechists have highlighted the challenges they face when Latino children enrolled in Spanish classes do not understand the lesson being taught in Spanish. The catechists find that this prevents the children from fully participating in the class.
- Staffing Issues: We have faced difficulties in maintaining a consistent number of Latino catechists. Too often in the past, this shortage has caused us to combine classes, after trying to find substitutes at the last minute. To have a full Spanish Faith Formation program, we need at least 12 Spanish Catechists. We currently have 7 Spanish Catechists who are willing to help us on a consistent basis.

As a partial solution, we will be utilizing bilingual workbooks for all children and will offer parent catechesis in both English and Spanish while children are in class. We highly encourage parents to participate in this new program, so they understand the topics being taught to their children.

During the year, I will be talking with our students to discern if there is a need to have a Spanish Faith Formation Program again. Please remember we MUST have at least 2 Catechists per classroom according to Diocesan policy. This means that we need more Spanish Catechists who are willing to make a commitment to come to the Church every week to work with our children. If you can help us, please contact Sharla Ortiz, our Faith Formation Director. She can tell you about the training needed and provided if you wish to serve as a Catechist.

On behalf of the parish community, I want to thank all our committed Catechists who have contributed so much of their time and energy to help our children grow spiritually in the Faith Formation Program. Please remember that God sees your hard work and will repay you with His blessings.

Changes challenge people to give up something for the greater good. I ask those of you who have children in our Faith Formation Program this year to be patient with my vision, and to pray for our Faith Formation Program, especially our Catechists.

May God bless you and your family always,

Rev. Timothy Do, Pastor

Estimadas familias participando en el Programa de Formación de Fe, Es mi oración que todos estén disfrutando de su tiempo con familia este verano. Como saben, he sido asignado por el Obispo Rojas como nuevo pastor de la parroquia Santa Catalina de Alejandría en Temecula. Como párroco, es mi responsabilidad ayudar a las familias dentro de esta comunidad parroquial a crecer en la fe y santidad. Ya han visto algunos cambios en la liturgia, las confesiones semanales, el horario de la oficina y bautismos durante las misas dominicales.

Después de escuchar a varias personas de la parroquia y evaluar personalmente nuestro Programa de Formación de Fe, he decidido que los Sacerdotes y Diáconos de nuestra parroquia estarán más involucrados en el Programa de Formación de Fe impartiendo diferentes clases, ofreciendo apoyo a los catequistas, y estando a disposición de vosotros, los padres.

También hay otro aspecto importante que quisiera poner en adelante en esta carta. Deseo informarles de un cambio importante que estoy haciendo en el Programa de Formación de Fe de nuestra Parroquia. Debajo de mi directiva, nuestro Programa de Formación de Fe ahora ofrecerá un programa unificado para todos los niños, que será facilitado en inglés. Este cambio está impulsado por varios factores:

- Disminución en la inscripción de estudiantes: Ha habido una disminución notable en el número de niños matriculados en clases de español. Más hijos de padres hispanohablantes están solicitando estar registrados en clases de inglés. Entienden mejor el inglés.
- Barrera del idioma: Los catequistas destacaron los desafíos que enfrentan cuando los niños latinos matriculados en clases de español no entienden la lección que se les enseña. Los catequistas encuentran que esto impide que los niños participen plenamente en la clase.
- Problemas de personal: Hemos enfrentado dificultades para mantener un número constante de catequistas latinos. Con demasiada frecuencia en el pasado, esta escasez nos ha obligado a combinar clases, después de intentar encontrar sustitutos en el último momento. Para tener un Programa de Formación de Fe completo, necesitamos al menos 12 catequistas que sean fluidos en español. Actualmente tenemos 7 catequistas que están dispuestos a ayudarnos de manera constante.

Como solución parcial, utilizaremos libros de trabajo bilingües para todos los niños y ofreceremos catequesis para padres tanto en inglés como en español mientras los niños están en clase. Recomendamos encarecidamente a los padres que participen en este nuevo programa, para que comprendan los temas que se enseñan a sus niños.

Durante el año, hablaré con nuestros estudiantes para discernir si es necesario tener un Programa de Formación de Fe nuevamente. Favor de recordar que DEBEMOS tener al menos 2 catequistas por salón de clases de acuerdo con la política diocesana. Esto significa que necesitamos más catequistas que sean fluidos en español que estén dispuestos a comprometerse a venir a la Iglesia cada semana para trabajar con nuestros niños. Si pueden ayudarnos, comuníquese con Sharla Ortiz, nuestra directora de Formación de Fe. Ella puede informarle sobre la capacitación necesaria si desea servir como catequista.

De parte de la comunidad parroquial, quiero agradecer a todos nuestros catequistas comprometidos que han contribuido gran parte de su tiempo y energía para ayudar a nuestros niños a crecer espiritualmente en el Programa de Formación de Fe. Recuerden que Dios ve sus obras y les recompensará con Sus bendiciones.

Los cambios desafían a las personas a renunciar a algo por un bien mayor. Les pido a aquellos de ustedes que tienen hijos este año en nuestro Programa de Formación de Fe que sean pacientes con mi visión y que oren por nuestro Programa de Formación de Fe, especialmente por nuestros Catequistas.

Que Dios los bendiga a ustedes y a sus familias siempre,

Rev. Timothy Do, Pastor
