22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Purity isn't popular at the moment. Or is it? Look at a rack of health magazines or at popular podcasts. You'll see an infinite ocean of regulations and rituals of diets, intermittent fasting, morning sun rituals, intense juice detox practices, lists of dangerous foods, mental practices, as well as long lists of dos and don'ts for the proper cleaning of clothes, dishes, cars, houses, pets, and children. Like it or not, we long to be pure, clean, and without blemish.

This question of purity haunted people in Jesus' day, too. The Pharisees and scribes (the leading purity authorities of the day) criticize Jesus, asking, "Why do your disciples not live according to the tradition of the elders, but eat with defiled hands?" (Mark 7:5). Jesus responds by saying, "There is nothing outside the person that can defile him if it goes into him; but the things that come out of the person are what defile the person" (Mark 7:15). What does he mean, and how can it help us be pure?

We've probably all heard the somewhat shopworn interpretation that Jesus replaces the ritual, exterior notion of purity with a moral, interior one. Christianity is thus seen as a kind of moral re-tooling, as if religion doesn't make us pure. Good moral intentions do. But this doesn't take the rest of Jesus' ministry seriously enough, nor our obsession with purity. The better reading is that Jesus audaciously offers himself as the ultimate source of human purity — from within each human heart. Both our religious ritual practices and our moral actions are meant to flow from this encounter with Jesus the Lord. When we are in friendship with him, everything becomes pure for us.

— Father John Muir

22° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Hace un par de domingos, en el capítulo 6 del Evangelio de San Juan, escuchamos el relato sobre la multiplicación de los panes y los peces; y a Jesús que se presenta como Pan de vida que ha bajado del cielo y nos alimenta para nuestra jornada de vida. Hoy, regresamos a Marcos que nos habla sobre la verdadera pureza del alma y del corazón. Y de cómo Jesús les llamaba la atención a los fariseos y maestros de la Ley que lo retaban con preguntas basadas en la ley: "¿Por qué tus discípulos no respetan la tradición de los ancianos, sino que comen con manos impuras?" Jesús, les responde con lo que Isaías profetizaba: "Este pueblo me honra con los labios, pero su corazón está lejos de mí. El culto que me rinden de nada sirve; las doctrinas que enseñan no son más que mandatos de hombres" (Marcos 7:5-7).

Enseguida de este mensaje, Jesús advierte que nada que entra de fuera mancha al ser humano, sino lo que sale del corazón. Es decir, que todo lo malo se planea desde la mente y el corazón. ¿Cómo puedo aplicar a mi vida el Evangelio de hoy? ¿Cuáles son mis intenciones al relacionarme con mi familia? ¿Son sinceras y honestas? Pidamos al Señor en esta Eucaristía que nos dé un corazón con buenas intenciones y que busquemos hacer solo lo que agrada a Dios. El Salmo nos dice: ¿Quién será grato a los ojos del Señor? Miremos a nuestro alrededor; será quien cumple los mandamientos, quien acepta su Palabra y la pone en práctica; quien promueve la paz, y quien cuida la casa común, por mencionar algunos ejemplos.

*Congratulations on your Ordination
Deacon Fernando Martínez*

May God's blessings be upon you as you begin your diaconate ministry. May He grant you peace and joy always.

Sonia, we thank you for "yes", also.

Congratulations on this great milestone in your priesthood.
We look forward to many years with you as our Pastor.

Congratulations
Fr. Timothy

God bless you and be with you in all you do!

We are starting something NEW and something FUN!!! Each week we will be putting a page of announcements—birthday greetings, wedding anniversaries, congratulations for graduations or a new baby, etc. (Like above)

If you would like to put in an announcement, we will ask for you to donate $100. This money will help with repairs to our campus. As you may know, we are in the process of repairing and replacing air conditioners in the church and on the campus; we just spent $5,000 to steam clean the floor of the church for the first time in 20 years; and the list continues.

This is a fun way to participate in helping with these repairs and costs. We will only have four announcements each week so it will be a "first come, first served" policy. Please call Mary, in the front office, or come in and see if there is space. Next, you will pay the $100 which you can pay by cash, check or credit card. After it is okayed and paid, then send your photo and any information you wish to include (names, what you are announcing or celebrating, any other details) in a jpeg format to Mary Hitzeman at mhitzeman@sbdioocese.org. Bulletins are sent to the publisher two weeks before they are printed so if you have a special date, please factor that in!!!

Calling new altar servers!!! We need your help...

- What does an altar server do? As an altar server, you are responsible for assisting the priest during Mass. Being a server means serving God and his people at Mass.
- Which mass will I be assigned to? We need altar servers at all of our weekend Masses. You primarily serve at the Mass of your choice, but we ask that all altar servers help cover Masses when there is a need, especially on Feast Days, Holy Days, Sacraments, and occasionally when an altar server is unable to serve their scheduled mass.
- How often do I serve? Depending on the number of altar servers assigned to a particular Mass, you may serve once or twice a month or more infrequently.

Requirements:

- a registered parishioner of St. Catherine of Alexandria
- at least in the 4th grade, adults are also welcome to serve
- must have received the Sacrament of Holy Communion
- wish to serve God

Please contact Aida (abaltazar@sbdiocese.org) for more information on the Altar Server Ministry and training information
