On November 1 and throughout November, we will have All Souls Day cards available in the back of the church for you to use to list your deceased family members. Please return these to the front office (with a donation, if you wish). They will be placed in the prayer box on the altar for the whole month of November so their souls will be remembered at all Masses during November. Please do not place them directly in the prayer box.

Something NEW this month: we will be having regular Mass Intentions during the weekdays, also. In years past, we only had Mass Intentions for November on the weekends. If you have any questions, please call Mary in the front office at 951 676 8136.
