WHAT IS A HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION?

A holy day of obligation is a type of solemnity. In the Church, solemnities are special days when we reflect on a particular mystery of our faith or remember a particular saint. The holy days of obligation are solemnities that have something distinctive about them: they're so important that the Church asks us to attend Mass on these days, even if they don't land on a Sunday. Sadly, we tend to fixate on the "obligation" part. We think of all the things that occupy our time, all the things that we need to do, all the things we would rather do.

Holy days involve obligations: the Church does expect us to go to Mass on those days. But let's propose, as the Church does, that they are much more than that. At their core, they are celebrations not obligations. The Church is not merely demanding that we "go to Mass." The Church is demanding that we celebrate! You can even see this in the name itself. We get our word holiday from the concept of a "holy" day, and so a "holy day" of obligation is really a "holiday" of obligation.

We go to Mass on these days to rejoice. At the heart of Christianity is the belief that we have something to rejoice over: our salvation in Christ. The Church invites us to Mass on these holy days to remind us of this reason to rejoice. (Excerpt from article by Jason Britsch, SJ, in The Jesuit Post)

DECEMBER 9 IS OUR NEXT HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION—The Immaculate Conception of Our Blessed Virgin Mary. (Mass times 7:30 a.m. in English and 6:30 p.m. in Spanish))

¿Qué es un día santo de obligación?

Un día santo de obligación es un tipo de solemnidad. En la Iglesia, las solemnidades son días especiales cuando reflexionamos sobre un misterio particular de nuestra fe o recordamos a un santo en particular. Los días sagrados de obligación son solemnidades que tienen algo distintivo: son tan importantes que la Iglesia nos pide que asistamos a misa en estos días, incluso si no aterrizan en domingo. Lamentablemente, tendemos a fijarnos en la parte de la "obligación". Pensamos en todas las cosas que ocupan nuestro tiempo, todas las cosas que necesitamos hacer, todas las cosas que preferiríamos hacer.

Los días sagrados implican obligaciones: la Iglesia espera ir a misa en esos días. Pero proponemos, como hace la Iglesia, que son mucho más que eso. En esencia, son celebraciones, no obligaciones. La Iglesia no solo está exigiendo que "lleguemos a misa". ¡La Iglesia está exigiendo que celebremos! Incluso puedes ver esto en el propio nombre. Otenemos nuestra palabra vacaciones del concepto de un

Día "santo", por lo que un "día santo" de obligación es realmente una "vacación" de obligación. Vamos a misa estos días para regocijarnos. En el corazón del cristianismo está la creencia de que tenemos algo por lo que regocijarnos: nuestra salvación en Cristo. La Iglesia nos invita a la misa en estos días santos para recordarnos esta razón para regocijarnos. (Excepto el artículo de Jason Britsch, SJ, en The Jesuit Post)

EL 9 DE DICIEMBRE ES NUESTRO PRÓXIMO DÍA SANTO DE OBLIGACIÓN—La Inmaculada Concepción de Nuestra Santísima Virgen María. (7:30 a.m. English , 6:30 pm español)

FAITH FORMATION

Join Us in Sharing November Blessings!

This November, our high school youth are embracing a beautiful mission of service, collecting fleece to create lap blankets for the seniors in a local assisted living facility. This small but heartfelt gesture brings warmth and companionship to those who might feel lonely during this season.

If you feel called to help, we invite you to contribute 2-yard pieces of fleece, which can be dropped off at our front office through November 25th. Each piece donated will be lovingly transformed into a blanket that will bring comfort and remind our seniors of the love and support they have within our community.

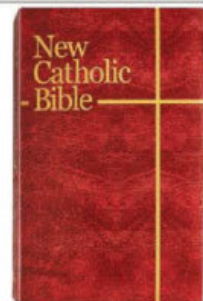

In this season of giving thanks, let's come together to share our blessings show our community we care!

Blankets will be assembled on December 1st in the Youth Center at 11am. All high school teenagers, whether they are in formation or not, are welcome and encouraged to bring a friend to come help put the blankets together.

- November 17th- Youth Mass and Session (Please bring a snack/food item to share and sign in at the entrance of Di Leo Hall at 11:15am. Be sure to dress appropriately for mass. Pick up time will be 2:30pm)
- November 23rd- Reconciliation Prep #2
- Week of November 24th- No onsite formation
- November 28th - Happy Thanksgiving (Multicultural Mass at 8am). Offices will be closed on November 28th and November 29th

Thanks to the incredible generosity of one of our faith formation families and three parishioner families, we are thrilled to announce that we have reached our first fundraising goal! With your support, we can now purchase new Bibles for all of our classrooms, a wonderful gift that will serve our community for years to come. We are deeply grateful for your kindness and commitment to nurturing faith.

For anyone who feels called to contribute to our ongoing fundraising efforts, know that every donation, big or small, makes a meaningful difference. To learn more, please reach out to Sharla at sortiz@sbdiocese.org. Thank you, and may God bless you all abundantly for your generosity!
